

The Diversity & Equity Office

www.waterloo.mylaurier.ca

The Diversity & Equity Office wants all Laurier students, staff and faculty to enjoy an open and accepting quality of life on campus. The office's role is to enhance diversity & equity on the Waterloo and Brantford campuses through events, training sessions and awareness campaigns. The Diversity & Equity Office works to educate, advocate and celebrate the uniqueness of every individual at Laurier.

MacDonald House Residence Room 117
diversity@wlu.ca

The Diversity Certificate Program is a high-impact, peer-to-peer certificate program created to engage, challenge and educate the community on topics related to diversity and equity.

education

The Multi-Faith Prayer Space provides a quiet and accessible space for prayer and meditation to meet the religious and spiritual needs of all students, faculty and staff on campus.

celebration

Alternative Reading Week (ARW) is a service-learning experience in an international community that combines learning, service, and travel in a meaningful, educationally purposeful, and fun way.

awareness

Association of Black Students (ABS)

The Association of Black Students (ABS) emphasizes empowerment, solidarity and progress by encouraging people to become more aware of and involved in the movement to overcome social and racially based inequalities in our world.

Association of Black Student initiatives include Black Think Tank, The Basement radio show, IntellectuELLE discussion group, Beating the Odds Conference, coffee houses and other socials, and awareness campaigns.

Visit www.mylaurier.ca/abs for details about how to get involved with ABS!

Questions? Contact abs@wlu.ca

Rainbow Centre

The Rainbow Centre is a safe and inclusive space that is available to all students, faculty, staff and visitors who are interested in learning about the Queer community. The Rainbow Centre is open to those who are LGBTQ identified, as well as anyone who is Queer-friendly or an Ally.

Rainbow Centre initiatives include the Gay Straight Alliance Conference, Trans Awareness Week, Oath of Silence Day, and bi-weekly discussions on topics such as gender identity, coming out, and community.

Visit www.mylaurier.ca/rainbow for details about how to get involved with the Rainbow Centre!

Questions? Contact rainbow@wlu.ca

Drop by our centers to learn more about upcoming programs and ways to get involved

Multi-Faith Resource Team

The Multi-Faith Resource Team assists students in their efforts to research or discuss ethical and theological issues, providing support as students enhance their own religious base and are challenged by unfamiliar faith stances.

Multi-Faith Resource team Chaplains include: Christian Reformed, Jewish, Muslim, Eastern Orthodox, United, Lutheran & Roman Catholic.

Visit www.mylaurier.ca/chaplains for more information.

Questions? Contact chaplains@wlu.ca

Centre for Women and Trans People*

The Centre for Women and Trans People* (CWT) strives to build a community of people and ideas that challenge and examine gender inequalities. The CWT provides a positive space where women and trans people can feel safe and affirmed, and individuals of any or no gender are welcome!

Centre for Women and Trans People* initiatives include International Women's Week, the Vagina Monologues, Radical Bodies Week, Sexual Assault Awareness campaigns, and Living Loud body image peer support group.

Visit www.mylaurier.ca/womens-centre for details about how to get involved with CWT!

Questions? Contact cwt@wlu.ca

